Readings April 11th

Acts 5:12-16	Psalm 118:2-4, 13-15, 22-24
Revelation 1:9-13, 17-19	John 20:19-31

Jesus came to show us the way to God by how he lived and died. During his earthly ministry, Christ continuously pointed us to his Father through his teaching, by his example of how to treat others and through actions, that his followers identified as "signs and wonders." Those who want to see Jesus can still know his presence today. We experience the loving and healing presence of Jesus through our daily interactions with other. We can help show God's presence to others by the way we live.

Next Weeks Readings

Acts 5:27-32, 40-41	Psalm 30:2, 4-6, 11-13
Revelation 5:11-14	John 21:1-19

Stewardship April 11th

“Blessed are they who have not seen and have believed,” Jesus says in today’s Gospel. For those who have not seen to believe, however, we must be good stewards of our faith, living it joyfully and sharing it generously. Then, in our time too, “men and women in great numbers” will be “added to the Lord.”

2010-2011 - Staffing and Program Changes:

Jerry Manternach with his assistant Carolyn have generously donated their time and service to the religious education programs, especially as coordinators of the Confirmation Program for decades. They have served in the ministry of the RCIA program for years and most recently the G of F program. The Manternachs have chosen to step down from these positions this coming year. Their dedication and services will be greatly missed! We are deeply indebted to them for their generous use of their time, talent and treasure.

Charlotte Scheckel has chosen to retire as the principal of St. Patrick School. We are grateful to her for the time and service she has given to stewarding our children in their faith and educational development. All of us have seen the terrific amount of time, dedication and energy Ms. Scheckel has put into St. Patrick School. The Board of Education is in the process of finding a replacement for her position.

New Pastoral Council Structures: In last week's article about the new Pastoral Council structures, I unintentionally missed naming Maria Carbaugh as one of the current members. I am very sorry!

At the Deanery Council Meetings the Archdiocesan Director of planning, Dan Rohner, has been in servicing us on the changes in structure, and on values/methods to be developed. In February the topic was: "Procedures for Recruiting members to Councils, Commissions/ boards/ committees". Asking parishioners for suggestions of names, along with a nominating committee are both recommended. It also recommends having two candidates for every open position. I therefore recommend that our parishioners develop a greater sense of responsibility and be willing to say YES, when called upon to serve their church family in some capacity. WE NEED YOU! Please have any suggested names to Sr.Susan by April 20th for the Faith Formation Commission or School Board positions. We will also be looking for teachers and service in other capacities, I'm sure.

Holy Cross Cemetery If you would like to save any decorations from the cemetery please have them removed by Friday, April 16th. Thank you
