Readings March 28th Luke 19:28-40 Isaiah 50:4-7 Psalms 22:8-9, 17-20, 23-24 Philippians 2:6-11 Luke 22:14—23:56 Jesus whole life proclaimed the Sermon on the Mount to us. The crucifixion as proclaimed to us today was the result of His life choices. Jesus repeatedly tells us, "Do not be afraid!" The message to disciples from the cross on this Palm Sunday is to go for life, it will cost us everything, but we will be changed. United with Christ we are able to live out his crucifixion and be united with Christ in His Resurrection.

Stewardship March 28th

In the Gospel story of the first Palm Sunday we hear that the owners of the ass had only to be told, "The Master has need of it," to give the animal gladly. Do I give as readily to the Lord's work?

Lenten / Holy Week Items:

- * Bring to church the old palm, it will be burned on Holy Saturday's new fire.
- * Plan to bring a bell to ring Holy Thursday and Holy Saturday at the Gloria.
- * Sign the form for adoration before the altar of repose after Holy Thursday's Mass.
- * Rice Bowls monies should be turned in on Holy Thursday.
- * all are invited to come forward to have your feet washed.

Good Friday collection is for upkeep of the Holy Land.

* Don't forget to turn in your No Fish - Fish Fry Fundraiser money

* Note Holy Week Schedule - is posted. Many ministers have been contacted; but Eucharistic Ministers, Greeters, Gift Bearers & videographers please check the bulletin board & watch the bulletin.

Pick up your Liturgical assignment sheet for April & May.

New Pastoral Council Structures:

You may have heard some conversation about the changes ahead for our pastoral leadership. The Pastoral Council and the Board of Education are working to try to understand the new expectations and to make plans to fulfill them.

Hopefully we will have a new constitutions and an additional committee formulated by election time in May. The new structure allows some appointed members, as long as they are less than half of the total members serving.

After we get this set up and working; the Board of Education will be a School Board. The new framework has us setting up a Faith Formation Commission, which will be charged with overseeing all religious education from "womb to tomb". Our pastoral council has plans to cut it's number of members from 9 to 7. The Chair of the Finance Council, a member of the stewardship committee and a member from the Faith Formation Commission are ex-officio voting members. That means there will be four others. For this coming year we will not be electing one to the council. We do however need to elect some to this Faith Formation Commission. More information will be coming soon.
